

DMEA 800: MACHINE & EQUIPMENT OF ANESTHESIA

This course provides a detailed orientation to anesthesia delivery systems. The goal of this course will be to give the learner in-depth anesthesia machine and equipment knowledge, that can then be applied in clinical training and practice. Topics covered in the course includes: anesthesia machines, gases, vaporizers, breathing circuits, ventilators, patient monitoring, airway equipment, provider vigilance, safety, and quality. This course spans one semester and is three credit hours.

Credits: 3.00

Learning Objectives: D1, D3, D13, D18, D19, D20, D21, D22, D23